Chirubhai went to the pilgrims in Mount Zind. He went in Aden, Yemen after completing high school and took two jobs one as gas station attendant and the other as a dispatch clerk. He was a quick learner. He worked with dedication. He got promotion in the fuel station and then he focused on importance power, money, and influence. Chirubhai and his wife Rohilaben could save Rs. 50,000 in ten years and in 1958 they returned to India.

Chirubhai chose Mumbai as base and started import and export of spices by using Rs. 50,000. Shortly Chirubhai began earning good profit. He could have five in fuels but he chose a comfortable life. He also spent Rs. 15,000 to start Reliance industries. Reliance industries was now a fast growing company in collecting $8000 in 1969. Chirubhai was successful in collecting $8,000 investors through shares. Ambani's life journey from rags to riches was thus taking its shape. Reliance became India's first company to raise capital in global market in 1962. Two books were written on the life of Chirubhai. He was often defined by his quote 'think big' 'think fast' 'think ahead' and 'ideas'.

Q: 17

Additional Commerce occurred between two agents. It would take place at local level. Exchange of service and goods between individual consumers was the method of traditional commerce. There would be a lack of individuality in it. E-commerce is based on technology and use internet and computerized software as a medium. Flipkart Amazon are better known e-commerce sites. E-commerce transactions are done online. Goods and services banking transactions are found done electronically or online. It is called e-commerce.

GROUP LEARNING METHOD

In our college, every class has its own WhatsApp group. On this group, teacher, students share information with each other. This group provides an opportunity for the students to articulate their ideas and clear their doubts. Many teachers, students share notes and study material on this group. This method was effectively used during the Corona pandemic.
